Statutes non-profit Association Films for the Earth

Art. 1 Name, seat, characteristics

1.1 Under the name "Films for the Earth", an association exists in accordance with the provisions of the Swiss law Article 60 ff. ZGB with headquarters in Winterthur.

1.2 The association is non-profit, denominationally and politically neutral and is managed sustainably.

Art. 2 Object

Films for the Earth is an international competence centre for environmental documentaries. Films for the Earth wants to reach as many people as possible with selected films, pass on knowledge about sustainability and inspire action.

The focus is on films that illustrate the influence of humans on the planet Earth, show solutions and/or awaken appreciation for life.

Films for the Earth has the aim of contributing to the preservation of the natural basis of life.

Art. 3 Membership

3.1 Members may be natural or legal persons, as well as bodies of public law.

3.2 Members of the Association have the following rights: a) to submit motions to the General Assembly of Members b) to elect and be elected c) to vote at the General Assembly of Members.

3.3 Membership expires in the case of natural persons by resignation, non-payment of the membership fee, expulsion or death. In the case of legal entities and corporate bodies by resignation, non-payment of the membership fee, exclusion or dissolution.

3.4 The Executive Board may waive the membership fee for members.
Art. 4 Admission
Admission to the association is possible at any time. The membership fee is due for the entire year, regardless of the date of joining. The board decides on the admission of new members. The application for admission must be submitted in writing via the form.

Art. 5 Withdrawal and exclusion
5.1 A member can leave at any time until 4 weeks before the end of the calendar year at the latest. The letter of resignation must be submitted in writing to Earth Movies no later than 4 weeks before the end of the calendar year. The withdrawing member is not entitled to a refund of the membership fee already paid in for the current year.

5.2 A member can be expelled from the association at any time without giving a reason. The board of directors has to decide on the exclusion. The member has no possibility of appeal.

5.3 The members have the right to resign from the association in accordance with Art. 5 up to 10 days after the ordinary general meeting as well as up to 10 days after a possible extraordinary general meeting, which changes the duties of the members (in particular increase of the membership fee). In this case, the membership fee for the current year is due from the beginning of the year to the end on the basis of the membership fee valid before the respective general meeting. If the member misses this deadline, the (new) membership fee is due for the entire following year.

Art. 6 Means
6.1 The funds of the association consist of sponsoring, private and public contributions, membership fees, voluntary contributions of all kinds and other amounts.

6.2 The club year begins on 1 January and ends on 31 December.

Art. 7 Liability
